

SYLLABUS
Centennial High School
2015-2016

Course #: 6027	Teacher Name: Ms. Hagen
Course Name: Biology	Room Number: R 202 Phone #: 763-792 -5131
Semester 2 <input type="checkbox"/> x	E-Mail: phagen@isd12.org
Prerequisite: Current IEP and case manager recommendation.	Credit Earned: .5

Course Description:

Students in this course will:

- Learn about the nature of life – Science of biology
- Learn about cells - Structure, Photosynthesis, and Respiration
- Learn about genetics – Introduction, DNA, RNA, and human heredity

Course Objective:

Students completing this course will understand the principles of:

- The basic structure and functioning of cells
- How cells combine to form organisms
- How plants and animals live
- The genetic basis of inheritance/traits

Course Expectations:

Course Expectations:

- Students are expected to attend class regularly and be active participants.
- Students are to have good attendance, remaining on task, participate in labs, maintain a good attitude and use class time appropriately.
- Students with excused absences are responsible for gathering and completing work missed. This work must be made up within one week from the absence.

Attendance: (Three unexcused tardies are equivalent to one unexcused absence)

High School attendance policy will be enforced. See student handbook.

Behavior:

- All students will treat others with respect. All students will be held accountable for their actions.
- Electronics policy will be enforced according the student hand book. No Cell phones, MP3 players, iPods, Etc.
- Please use appropriate language
- All students will treat the classroom materials with care and respect. Safety First!
- Students are in this classroom by recommendation of their case manager. By choosing not to follow class Rules, you jeopardize ability to remain in class.
- Any student wishing to leave the classroom must have a pass signed by the teacher. Leaving without a A pass will result in your attendance being marked truant.

Materials Needed:

EVERY DAY Students will need their book, three ring binder with chapter study guides, pencil, and pen. The teacher will not make these items available. A safe space will be made available if students choose to store these items in the classroom.

