Course Expectations:

- Students are expected to attend class regularly and be active participants.
- Students with excused absences are responsible for gathering and completing work missed. This work must be made up within one week from the absence.
- Students with unexcused absences May Not make up work that was missed on the day of their absence.
- This class is designed to support the student other course. If this class is not being used to benefit them academically students will be placed in alternative elective.

Attendance: (Three unexcused tardies are equivalent to one unexcused absence)

High School attendance policy will be enforced. See student handbook.

Behavior:

- Please use appropriate language
- All students will treat others with respect. Harassment will be reported to administration.
- All students will be held accountable for their actions.
- All students will treat the classroom materials with care and respect. Safety First!
- Students are in this classroom by recommendation of their case manager. By choosing not to follow class rules, you will be jeopardizing your ability to remain in this class.
- Any student wishing to leave the classroom must have a pass signed by the teacher. Leaving without a pass will result in your attendance being marked truant.

Materials Needed:

- Students will need a folder, pencil, and pen every day. These items will not be made available by the teacher. It is also recommended that students have a flash drive for use on assignments that require word processing.
- Students are expected to bring materials from their other academic courses to work on during part of the period. Reading materials are required on days that you have no work required for other classes.

Miscellaneous:

You will be required to take part and complete daily lessons. You may also be required to do research and writing projects based on classroom topics. Your grade will be based on attendance and participation, daily work, projects and proper use of study time. This class does not require exams but students may be quizzed on materials that they have read and skills that have been taught in class
